City considers John letters to fight prostitution

BY JULIO MORALES

FAIR VIEW

City officials are preparing an outline of their plan to deal with prostitution in the city. The outline, which was approved by the City Council earlier this month, was presented to the City Manager last week.

The plan includes a series of measures aimed at addressing the issue of prostitution in the city. These measures include increased enforcement of prostitution laws, increased education and outreach to the public, and the creation of a hotline for individuals who are in need of assistance.

The plan was presented to the City Manager last week and is expected to be presented to the City Council for approval in the coming weeks.
