

Researcher Registration Form

The IVDM welcomes researchers to use its collections for research and publication provided that they have a stated research goal; appreciate the unique and delicate nature of the resources that they wish to use; and can conduct research in a responsible manner. All research requests MUST be submitted at least two (2) weeks in advance of the proposed dates for a visit that involves access to the IVDM's collections. Please notify the Museum at least 24 hours in advance to cancel or reschedule an appointment; dates and times for rescheduled visits are at the Museum's discretion. Missed appointments will require a new request.

All researchers MUST complete the registration information below, read the entire research policy, and sign them BEFORE they are allowed access to the collections.

Costs

The IVDM does not charge fees for research conducted in the collection. Researchers are responsible for supplying their own equipment (cameras, laptops, measuring devices, etc.). The use of any outside materials is subject to approval of Museum staff.

The IVDM does not have the resources to do extensive research for our patrons. Staff research will depend upon available staff time and scope of requested research.

Permissions and Credits

Any public use of materials from the collections must be credited to "Imperial Valley Desert Museum."

Full credit for each photographic image obtained from the archives must appear in immediate proximity to the reproduction or in the section within the publication devoted to acknowledgements. An exact credit line for each image will be provided by IVDM archives staff.

The researcher agrees to inform the Museum staff if research is to be published. The researcher agrees to immediately provide the IVDM with one (1) copy of any materials produced that are derived in part or whole from research conducted at IVDM, including any materials that are produced in fulfillment of education requirements, or which are published for commercial purposes, through broadcast, computer-digitized, or print media. There are works for which the IVDM does not own the copyright. While the Museum staff will furnish as much information pertaining to copyright as is possible, it is the ultimate responsibility of the applicant to research outside copyrights. In the case of living artists/photographers, it is the responsibility of the applicant to obtain this permission. Access to research materials does not constitute permission to publish in excess of "fair use" according to the copyright laws of the United States.

Special Conditions

While the Museum staff makes every effort to accommodate research requests, circumstances such as time constraints, fragility of objects, cultural sensitivities, publication status, or inaccessibility may prevent access to some materials.

The researcher agrees to follow the policies and procedures of IVDM and accepts responsibility for any damages or penalties resulting from personal failure to do so. Patrons who fail to abide by these policies will be denied access to the collections. Theft or mutilation of items in the collections are crimes that will be prosecuted by the appropriate law enforcement agency, including local, state, and federal.

The undersigned acknowledges that s/he has read and agrees to abide by the Collection Use and Access Guidelines.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT LAW

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purposes other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use" that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law. Please be advised that the publication or reproduction of any materials provided by the Imperial Valley Desert Museum is strictly prohibited without the express prior consent of the Imperial Valley Desert Museum.

VIOLATORS OF THE ABOVE LAW ARE SUBJECT TO PENALTIES

I have read and agree to abide by the rules for using the Imperial Valley Desert Museum collections and materials. I am aware that infringement of Museum policies may result in my being excluded from using Museum resources, not limited to the collections and archives.

I shall acknowledge the use of the Imperial Valley Desert Museum in any publication which may result from my research through correct citation of sources. I shall provide the Imperial Valley Desert Museum with a copy, free of charge, of any publication resulting from my use of the Museum collections and/or archives.

I acknowledge the above copyright warning, and agree to request permission from the Museum and any additional copyright holders when required by law.
